

ICSID Review—Foreign Investment Law Journal

Volume 25, Number 1, Spring 2010

featuring articles based on presentations from the Conference on International Investment Arbitration

January 20, 2010 ~ Supreme Court, Singapore

Organized by the

Centre for International Law at the National University of Singapore

The Conference on International Investment Arbitration held by the Centre for International Law in Singapore brought together some of the world's leading practitioners, arbitrators and scholars in the field of investment treaty arbitration. The topics discussed during the Conference and examined in this issue include: access to international jurisdiction; corruption in the making of an investment; the role of precedent in international arbitration; and the role played by the Articles on State Responsibility in international arbitration.

Ordering: (use promotion code ICS10SING)

Journals Publishing Division
The Johns Hopkins University Press
2715 North Charles Street
Baltimore, Maryland 21218-4363, U.S.A.
Ph: 410-516-6987; Fax: 410-516-3866
E-mail: jrnlcirc@press.jhu.edu

Price Per Issue: (plus shipping: $3 U.S.; $4 all others)

Purchasers in OECD countries:

Institution $57.00; Individual $54.00

Purchasers in Non-OECD countries:

Institution $28.50; Individual $27.00

Forms of Payment Accepted:

Credit Card (by phone, fax or mail);
Check or Money Order (by mail, must be drawn on a U.S. bank and amount must be in U.S. dollars)

CIL

Centre for International Law
National University of Singapore

Appearing twice annually, the ICSID Review is a journal devoted exclusively to foreign investment law and international investment dispute settlement. It offers legal and business professionals an up-to-date review of domestic law, investment treaties, contractual trends and resolutions of investment disputes.

<http://icsid.worldbank.org>

