CIL Database of ASEAN and International Law Documents

The CIL Documents Database is a free, user-friendly, internet resource of selected ASEAN and International Law Documents. More than 200 selected ASEAN documents are now included in the database. It enables users to search for documents by category, years, and/or by keywords.

Category/Year Search

The search engine is located on the CIL home page.

1. To find international law documents on human rights, choose "IL – Human Rights" from the sub-category drop-down menu.
2. To find ASEAN constituent documents, select "ASEAN Constituent Documents" in the sub-category drop-down menu.
3. To locate ASEAN documents on political/security matters adopted after 1 January 2005, select "ASEAN Documents" under category, "ASEAN Political-Security Community" under sub-category, and "2005" under "From" in the year drop-down menu.

Keyword Search

1. To search for ASEAN documents relating to the South China Sea, enter "South China Sea" in the keyword field.
2. To search for ASEAN documents on the environment, enter "environment" in the keyword field.
3. To search the 1969 Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, enter "Treaties" in the keyword field.

Search

Search results are displayed as a list of the full titles of the documents arranged in reverse chronological order. When you click on a document title in the search results, a Summary Template for that document will open. The Summary Template contains basic information about that Document and a link to the text of the document on an external website.

The Summary Templates for the most important documents also contain links to CIL-formatted versions of the full text in both Word and *PDF. The CIL text of the document also contains a Table of Contents. If you Ctrl+Click on any item in the Table of Contents, it will take you directly to the text of that article in the document.

We encourage you to provide us with feedback on how we may improve the facility.
Do write in to anita.perera@nus.edu.sg. We look forward to hearing from you.
