INTERNATIONAL AVIATION AND CRIMINAL LAW

Where Are We Now?

Gerard Forlin QC

Gerard Forlin QC was educated at Trinity Hall, University of Cambridge, and the London School of Economics, and was called to the Bar by Lincoln's Inn.

As Queen's Counsel in both criminal and civil fields, Gerard specialises in many aspects of regulatory work and has acted in recent major cases involving catastrophic road, air, chemical, nuclear, construction, rail, shipping, product liability and environmental matters.

In 2012, Gerard was appointed to the Royal Aeronautical Society Panel of Mediators and Arbitrators, which has only 14 members worldwide. Gerard has lectured, practised and consulted in over 40 countries and published over 90 articles. He is General Editor of 'Corporate Liability: work related deaths and criminal prosecutions' (3rd edition) Bloomsbury 2012. Gerard practises from London, Singapore and Sydney.

INTRODUCTION

This lecture will cover a number of Jurisdictions and examples to show that in the aftermath of an Aviation incident there is a much greater likelihood that a criminal investigation will follow. Increasingly, this is leading to prosecutions of companies, organisations and individuals.

The lecture will look at inter alia:

- Some examples
- Human factors
- Just culture
- International and local laws
- Legal professional privilege
- Insurance
- Conflicts
- Contractors
- Airports
- Inquests and public Inquiries
- Sentencing
- Corporate manslaughter and health and safety
- Environmental issues

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW (CIL)

The Centre for International Law (CIL) is based at the Bukit Timah campus of the National University of Singapore. CIL's mission is to enable Singapore and the Asia-Pacific region to play a more significant role in the promotion and development of international law and policy. The Centre's aim is to become the region's intellectual hub and thought leader for research on and teaching of international law and policy. The Director of CIL is Associate Professor Robert C Beckman and the Deputy Director is Dr Navin Raj. For more information, please visit the CIL website at <http://www.cil.nus.edu.sg> or email: cil.info@nus.edu.sg
