

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR S JAYAKUMAR
Chairman, CIL International Advisory Panel, National University of Singapore

---

Professor S JAYAKUMAR was Singapore's former Deputy Prime Minister and Senior Minister. Professor Jayakumar has held various portfolios such as Minister for Home Affairs, Minister for Foreign Affairs, Minister for Labour, and was also Minister for Law, for 26 years. He served as Singapore's Permanent Representative to the United Nations, and High Commissioner to Canada from 1971-1974 and a member of Singapore's delegation to the Third Law of the Sea Convention. In addition he oversaw the Pedra Branca case before the International Court of Justice (ICJ) as well as the Land Reclamation case before the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS). He is the author of several books, the most recent being 'Pedra Branca – The Road to the World Court' (together with Prof Tommy Koh) and 'Diplomacy - A Singapore Perspective', and has written many articles on topics of constitutional law, international law and legal education. Professor Jayakumar served as Dean of the National University of Singapore's Faculty of Law. He now serves as the Chairman of the Law Faculty's Advisory Council and also as Chairman of the International Advisory Panel of the Centre for International Law (CIL). He is also consultant at the law firm of Drew and Napier.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR TOMMY KOH
Chairman, CIL Governing Board, National University of Singapore

---

Professor Tommy KOH is Ambassador-At-Large at the Singapore Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Chairman of the Centre for International Law, Rector of Tembusu College at the National University of Singapore and Special Adviser of the Institute of Policy Studies. He is the Co-Chairman of the China-Singapore Forum, the India-Singapore Strategic Dialogue and the Japan-Singapore Symposium. Professor Koh was the President of the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea and chaired the Preparatory Committee for and the Main Committee at the Earth Summit. He was Singapore's Permanent Representative to the United Nations for 13 years, Ambassador to the United States for six years, and served as the United Nations Secretary General's Special Envoy to Russia, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. He was also Singapore's Chief Negotiator for the US-Singapore Free Trade Agreement and has chaired two dispute panels for the WTO. Professor Koh acted as Singapore's Agent in the case concerning Pedra Branca before the ICJ and in the Land Reclamation case before ITLOS. He is a student of international law and, in particular, on law of the sea. Professor Koh was recently named the recipient of the 2014 Great Negotiator Award (an award given out by an inter-university consortium comprising Harvard University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Tufts University and the Future of Diplomacy Project at Harvard Kennedy School).

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR ROBERT BECKMAN
Director, Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore

---

Robert BECKMAN is the Director of the Centre for International Law (CIL), a university-wide research centre at the National University of Singapore (NUS). He also heads CIL's Ocean Law & Policy Programme.

Professor Beckman received his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin and his LL.M. from Harvard Law School. He is an Associate Professor at the NUS Faculty of Law, where he has taught for 36 years. He is also an Adjunct Senior Fellow at the S Rajaratnam School of International Studies (RSIS), Nanyang Technological University, and a member of the National Executive Committee of CSCAP Singapore.

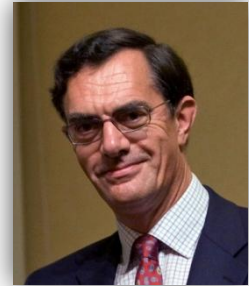

Professor Beckman currently teaches Ocean Law & Policy in Asia and International Regulation of Shipping at the NUS Faculty of Law. For the past four years he has lectured in the summer programme at the Rhodes Academy of Oceans Law & Policy in Rhodes, Greece, and he is a member of the Governing Board for the Rhodes Academy. He also lectures in the International Maritime Boundary Workshops organized by CIL and the International Boundaries Research Unit (IBRU) of Durham University.

Professor Beckman's main research interest is ocean law and policy issues in Asia. His most recent publication on the South China Sea is in the January 2013 issue of the American Journal of International Law.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR ALAN BOYLE
Professor of Public International Law, Edinburgh Law School, University of Edinburgh
Barrister, Essex Court Chambers, London

---

Alan BOYLE has been Professor of Public International Law at the University of Edinburgh School of Law since 1995. He teaches international law, international environmental law, and law of the sea. Publications include International Law and the Environment (with Patricia Birnie and Catherine Redgwell)(3rd edn, OUP, 2009) and The Making of International Law (with Christine Chinkin)(OUP, 2007). He practises international law from Essex Court Chambers, London. Recent or current cases include Pulp Mills on the River Uruguay (ICJ), Aerial Spraying (ICJ), Bay of Bengal Maritime Boundaries (ITLOS and PCA), Japanese Whaling (ICJ), Chagos Islands (PCA) and South China Sea Case (PCA).

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR HANS CHR. BUGGE
Professor Emeritus of Environmental Law, Department of Public and International Law,
University of Oslo

---

Hans Chr. BUGGE is Professor emeritus of Environmental Law at the Department of Public and International Law, University of Oslo.

He holds a doctorate in regional planning from the Université de Paris II (1972) and is Dr. juris from the University of Oslo on a thesis on responsibility for pollution in Norwegian law (1998). In 1998 he was appointed Professor of Environmental Law.

Before he became an academic lawyer in 1991, he held various senior positions as a civil servant in Norway's Ministry of the Environment 1972-82, i.a. as Director General of Norway's Pollution Control Authority, and Director General of the Department for Urban and Regional Planning.

He has also worked extensively with development issues. From 1982 to 1991 he was Secretary General of Redd Barna (Save the Children Norway) running humanitarian and development projects in Asia, Africa and Central America. 1986-87 he served as State Secretary (Deputy Minister) for Development Cooperation and personal advisor to Prime Minister Gro Harlem Brundtland in her work as chair of the World Commission on Environment and Development.

He has been vice chair of the board of the national Research Council of Norway, dean for research at the Faculty of Law, and chair of the faculty's interdisciplinary Research group in Natural Resources Law.

Bugge has lectured and written extensively on national and international environmental law and sustainable development.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR GÜNTHER HANDL
Eberhard Deutsch Professor of Public International Law, Tulane University Law School

---

Günther HANDL is the Eberhard P. Deutsch Professor of Public International Law at Tulane University Law School in New Orleans, Louisiana. He holds law degrees from the University of Graz (Dr. iur.), Cambridge (LL.B.) and Yale (SJD). He has been a Fellow at the Max-Planck-Institute of Public International Law in Heidelberg, Germany and has taught at several other law schools in the United States, Canada, Japan and Europe. He is the founder and former editor-in-chief of the Yearbook of International Environmental Law, and author of many books and articles in the field of public international law, international environmental law and law of the sea. Prof. Handl is the recipient of a number of awards, including the Prix Elisabeth Haub 1997. He has served in an advisory capacity to a number of governments, as a consultant to various international organizations, including the United Nations Environment Programme, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, the Asian Development Bank and the World Bank, as well as a lecturer for the United Nations Codification Division, Office of Legal Affairs and The Hague Academy of International Law.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR LAN HUA
Associate Professor, Faculty of International Law,
China University of Political Science and Law

---

LAN Hua is Associate Professor of Faculty of International Law, China University of Political Science and Law (CUPL). She holds law degrees from Wuhan University Law School (LL.M. and J.S.D.) and Nanchang University Law School (LL.B.). She has taught required upper-level course in International Law, as well as Upper-level courses in Selected EU Case Study, International Organization Law, Legal English, and China and WTO. Professor Lan Hua has served for many years as the faculty advisor and coach of the CUPL teams in the Philip C Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. Her current research interests include International Environmental Law, European Law, and WTO Law. She has published numerous law review articles and book chapters and been involved in many research projects on international environmental law.

BIOGRAPHY OF MS YOUNA LYONS

Senior Research Fellow, Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore

---

Youna LYONS is a senior research fellow with the Centre for International Law at the National University of Singapore focusing on regional environmental governance in Southeast Asia. Her primary research areas are offshore oil and gas in Southeast Asia including decommissioning and the prospects for rigs to reef, the use of satellite imagery to inform marine environmental management through habitat mapping and maritime boundary disputes on remote features, the protection of marine sensitive environments in the seas of Southeast Asia and the underlying legal and institutional governance framework.

Prior to this, Youna created and led the private international law practice of the Litigation and Arbitration Group at Clifford Chance (Paris office), one of the world's leading law firms, for more than 12 years. Passionate about the ocean, Youna has been trained in marine ecology and policy at the College of Ocean and Fisheries of the University of Washington (where she obtained a Masters in Marine Affairs).

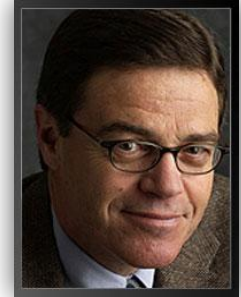

Youna's dual expertise in law and marine sciences uniquely position her to integrate these fields for marine policy making purposes. In addition she focuses on developing industry relevant research and on involving the industry in marine policy proposals.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR STEPHEN MCCAFFREY
Distinguished Professor of Law, McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific

---

Stephen C. MCCAFFREY is Distinguished Professor of Law at the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, California. He served two terms on the International Law Commission, chaired that body for one of its sessions, and was the Commission's special rapporteur on international watercourses. He has served as counsel to States in cases before the International Court of Justice and the Permanent Court of Arbitration.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR AKIO MORISHIMA
Emeritus Professor of Nagoya University, Japan
Lawyer, Kato, Nishida, Hasegawa Law Firm

---

Akio MORISHIMA is the Emeritus Professor of Nagoya University, Japan. He holds law degrees from Harvard Law School (LL.M.) and University of Tokyo (LL.B.). He was a professor of law at Nagoya University, Sophia University (Tokyo) and Towa University (Yamaguchi), and a visiting professor of law at Harvard Law School, British Columbia University (Canada) and Leiden University (Netherlands). Professor Akio Morishima was the President of the Central Council of Environment (government), Commissioner of Nuclear Commission (government), Advisor to the Cabinet Legislation Bureau (government), President of Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (public corporation), and President of Japan Environment Association (public corporation). His areas of research include torts law, contract law, consumer law and environmental law. He has been involved in research projects on the compensation scheme for pollution victims, a draft legislation for the stratum underground disposal of spent nuclear fuels and various policy plans for global environmental issues in the process of government commissions' activities. His publications include "Environmental Law in Japan", MIT Press (with Gresser and Fujikura) and "International Environmental Law and Regulation", Butterworth Legal Publishers (ed. with Schlidsman and others). Currently, he is a lawyer at Kato, Nishida & Hasegawa Law Firm, Japan.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR JACQUELINE PEEL
Professor, Melbourne Law School, University of Melbourne

---

Jacqueline PEEL of the Melbourne Law School, Australia holds the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Laws (Hon I) from the University of Queensland, a Master of Laws from New York University where she was a Fulbright Scholar, and a PhD in law from the University of Melbourne. Professor Peel's teaching and research interests lie in the areas of environmental law (domestic and international), risk regulation and the role of science, and climate change law. She has published numerous articles and several books on these topics, including the 3rd edition of Principles of International Environmental Law (with P. Sands); Australian Climate Law in Global Context (with A. Zahar and L. Godden); Environmental Law: Scientific, Policy and Regulatory Dimensions (with L. Godden); Science and Risk Regulation in International Law and The Precautionary Principle in Practice. Professor Peel is an expert member of the International Law Association's Committee on the Legal Principles relating to Climate Change, acting as Rapporteur of that Committee during the latter half of 2012. She has also been the recipient of several awards and fellowships including a Hauser Research Scholarship and Emile Noel Fellowship at NYU; a Research Associateship from the United States Studies Centre; and two Australian Research Council grants on climate change law-related topics. During 2013-2014, Professor Peel is a Visiting Scholar at the Woods Institute for the Environment at Stanford University.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR CATHERINE REDGWELL
Chichele Professor of Public International Law and Fellow, All Souls College,
University of Oxford

---

Catherine REDGWELL is currently Chichele Professor of Public International Law in the University of Oxford and a Fellow of All Souls College. Other affiliations include membership of the Greenwich Forum, the Council of the ILA British Branch, the IBA's Academic Advisory Group of the Section on Energy, Environment, Natural Resources and Infrastructure Law, and of the IBA's Climate Change Justice and Human Rights Task Force. Formerly general editor of the International and Comparative Law Quarterly, she is currently joint general editor of the British Year Book of International Law and co-editor of Oxford Monographs in International Law (OUP). Professor Redgwell has published extensively in public international law, particularly in the areas of international environmental law, international energy law, law of the sea, and treaty law. Recent publications include co-authored new editions of Birnie, Boyle and Redgwell International Law & the Environment (OUP, 3rd edn, 2009), Lyster's International Wildlife Law (CUP, 2nd edn, 2010), and Energy Law in Europe (OUP, 3rd edn, 2014). She is currently co-investigator in a two year (2012-2014) research project on Climate Geoengineering Governance funded by the ESRC and AHRC.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR NICHOLAS A. ROBINSON
University Professor for the Environment, Pace University
Professor Adjunct, Yale University School of Forestry & Environmental Studies
Kerlin Professor of Environmental Law Emeritus, Pace Law School
Former Chair of the Commission on Environmental Law, and Legal Advisor, of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN)

---

Nicholas A. ROBINSON is the University Professor for the Environment at Pace University, and Gilbert and Sarah Kerlin Distinguished Professor of Environmental Law Emeritus at Pace University School of Law, and Professor Adjunct at the Yale University School of Forestry & Environmental Studies. He is also the Co-Director of the Center for Environmental Legal Studies (CELS). Professor Robinson has developed environmental law since 1969, when he was named to the Legal Advisory Committee of the President's Council on Environmental Quality. He has practiced environmental law in law firms for municipalities and as general counsel of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. He drafted New York's wetlands and wild bird laws and was inaugurated as the first chairman of both the statutory Freshwater Wetlands Appeals Board and Greenway Heritage Conservancy for the Hudson River Valley. He has served as legal advisor and chairman of the Commission on Environmental Law of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources, engaged in drafting treaties and counseling different countries on the preparation of their environmental laws. He founded Pace's environmental law programs, edited the proceedings of the 1992 United Nations Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and is author of several books and numerous articles. He teaches a number of environmental law courses.

Professor Robinson served as James D. Hopkins Professor of Law during the 1991–1993 academic years.

On March 2009, the Pace University Board of Trustees conferred the position of University Professor for the Environment on Nicholas A. Robinson for his significant contribution to scholarship in the field of environmental law, both in the USA and abroad.

BIOGRAPHY OF DR LAODE M. SYARIF
Senior Lecturer, Faculty of Law, Hasanuddin University, Indonesia

---

Laode M. SYARIF is a Senior Lecturer at Hasanuddin University, Faculty of Law, Makassar, Indonesia (www.unhas.ac.id). He teaches Environmental Law, International Environmental Law, and Comparative Environmental Law. He also teaches part-time and supervises PhD thesis at the Faculty of Law, University of Indonesia. In addition, he also teaches as a guest lecturer in the course “Environmental Law in Developing Countries” for the graduate program in the University of South Pacific, Vanuatu.

Apart from his teaching job, he also serves as a Senior Advisor on Justice and Environmental Governance at the Partnership for Governance Reform in Indonesia (www.kemitraan.or.id), where he develops and manages several environmental projects on sustainable forest management, climate change and REDD+, and Environmental Law Enforcement in Indonesia. He has also been selected as a principal trainer for the Supreme Court of Indonesia in the area of Environmental Law and Judicial Code of Conduct since 2007. He also develops and manages several anti corruption and good governance programs with Corruption Eradication Commission (KPK), Indonesian National Police, Attorney General's Office, Supreme Court, Ministry of State Apparatus and Bureaucratic Reform, Indonesian National Planning Agency (BAPPENAS), Ministry of Environment, Ministry of Home Affairs, and Ministry of Forestry, and Civil Society Organizations (CSOs). As a senior advisor he works closely with donor communities such as: USAID, AusAID, DFID, World Bank, UNDP, UNODC, Danida, Norway Embassy and other donor agencies in Indonesia.

He has published books, journal articles and several short articles in the national media in the areas of atmospheric pollution, forestry, fisheries, biodiversity, and REDD+ issues. He is also one of the drafters of Indonesian Law No 32/ 2009 on Environmental Management and Protection. He has a Bachelor of Laws (S.H) from Hasanuddin University, a Master of Laws (LLM) from Queensland University of Technology (QUT) Brisbane and obtained his Ph.D from Sydney University's Law School.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR ALAN KHEE-JIN TAN
Professor of Law, National University of Singapore

---

Alan Khee-Jin TAN is Professor of Law at the National University of Singapore (NUS). An alumnus of the NUS and Yale law schools, he researches into and teaches aviation law, maritime law and environmental law. His book on marine environmental law and the shipping industry, Vessel-Source Marine Pollution: The Law and Politics of International Regulation, was published by Cambridge University Press. Professor Tan has also written on Indonesia's state responsibility for the transboundary impact of forest fires and the problems of decentralization and natural resource management in Indonesia. These writings have appeared in journals such as the International and Comparative Law Quarterly and the New York University Environmental Law Journal. In 2007, he was co-editor of a landmark multi-disciplinary work, Biodiversity and Human Livelihoods in Protected Areas: Case Studies from the Malay Archipelago, published by Cambridge University Press. He has also advised the UNDP and the government of Vietnam on legal issues pertaining to the environment and natural resource management. He is currently Director of the New York University School of Law Singapore Program (NYU@NUS) based at the National University of Singapore.

BIOGRAPHY OF PROFESSOR SIMON SC TAY
Chairman, Singapore Institute of International Affairs

---

Simon TAY is a public intellectual as well as private advisor to major corporations and policy-makers.

He is concurrently Chairman of the Singapore Institute of International Affairs, the country's oldest think tank and founding member of the ASEAN network of think tanks. He is also an Associate Professor, teaching international law at the National University of Singapore. His commentaries feature regularly in newspapers such as TODAY, Jakarta Post (Indonesia) and the China Daily. He also featured on television with BBC, CNN, Bloomberg, CNBC & Channel News Asia.

Professor Tay is also a Senior Consultant at WongPartnership, a leading Asian law firm. He serves on the Global Advisory Boards for Toyota Motor Corporation and MUFG, the world's second largest financial group. Furthermore, he sits as a board member for two major Singaporean corporations, Hyflux Ltd, a billion dollar water treatment company, and Far East Organization.

From 1992 to 2008, he served in public positions for Singapore, including as Chairman of the National Environment Agency, reporting to the Minister as an independent Member of Parliament, and to coordinate the Singapore Volunteers Overseas. He has taught as a visiting professor at Yale University, the Fletcher School and Harvard Law School.

Professor Tay is a prize-winning author of stories and poems and, in 2010, his novel City of Small Blessings was awarded the Singapore Literature Prize. He graduated in law from the National University of Singapore (1986), where he was president of the student union for three terms, and from Harvard Law School (1993), where he won the Laylin prize for the best thesis in international law.