AN INTRODUCTION TO ICSID PROCESS

The ICSID Secretariat will be offering a one-day primer on practice and procedure in ICSID Convention. ICSID Secretary-General, Ms Meg Kinnear will take participants through the workings of the ICSID system at each stage of an arbitration proceeding. The course will assist anyone interested in ICSID arbitration who has not yet gained substantial experience in the field.

This presents a unique insight into the work of the ICSID Secretariat and assists government officials and private-sector counsel to better understand and anticipate procedural steps. Course materials will be provided to the participants and will include the overview presentation, the ICSID Convention and rules, case statistics and other practical information.
