

DRAFT OF 19 DECEMBER 2017

International Law Year in Review
8 February 2018, Thursday
9:00 AM – 5:30 PM
Mandarin Orchard Singapore

The Centre for International Law's first International Law Year in Review Conference will bring together the international law community in Singapore, with the aim of providing knowledge and insight into the latest developments in international law and legal practice from a Singaporean and global perspective.

The conference will canvass key developments at the International Court of Justice and other international courts and tribunals, significant treaty-making, legislative and judicial developments and key issues to watch. Participation will give lawyers and non-lawyers alike a broad overview of the key trends in international law.

Highlights of the day will include:

Singapore's Permanent Representative to the United Nations, Ambassador Burhan Gafoor, presenting a view from inside the United Nations in New York.

Ambassador Kwok Fook Seng, Singapore's former Chief Negotiator for the Paris Accord, looking at the future of the Paris Accord.

A special panel including Canada's former Chief Justice Beverley McLachlin, Justice Quentin Loh and Mr Alvin Yeo SC on the courts and international and foreign law.

A literary lunch with acclaimed Singaporean playwright Mr Haresh Sharma from The Necessary Stage in discussion with Ambassador-at-Large Professor Tommy Koh.
