

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

ARSANA	I Made Andi Arsana Department of Geodetic and Geomatic Engineering, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia Dr I Made Andi Arsana is a lecturer and researcher at the Department of Geodetic Engineering, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia. He is currently appointed by the Indonesian Ministry of Foreign Affairs as an expert of the technical team of Maritime Boundary Delimitation between Indonesia and its neighbouring countries. He obtained his PhD from the Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS), University of Wollongong and a master's degree from the University of New South Wales, Australia. Dr Arsana is also an alumnus of the UN-Nippon Foundation Fellowship, a research and internship programme organised by the UN Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea (DOALOS). For the programme, he conducted research at ANCORS and UN DOALOS in New York in 2007. In relation to this expertise he was involved in the revision of the 5th edition of Manual on the Technical Aspects of the United Nations Convention on Law of the Sea (TALOS) published by the International Hydrographic Bureau, Monaco. He has published around 230 works in the fields of geospatial aspects of ocean affairs and the law of the sea in journal articles, books, conference proceedings, and popular-scientific articles both in English and Bahasa Indonesia. He is a productive opinion author with more than 65 articles in the Jakarta Post. He has presented his various works in several international fora in Asia, Australia, America, Europe and Africa since 2005. A president of an African country invited him in 2013 for advice regarding his expertise on maritime boundary delimitation. For his achievement in scientific and popular publications, Dr Arsana has received awards from Australia, France, Germany, the Netherlands and Indonesia.
BECKMAN	Robert Beckman Head of Ocean Law and Policy, Centre for International Law Associate Professor Robert Beckman is the Head of the Ocean Law and Policy programme and the former Founding Director of the Centre for International Law (CIL), a university-level research centre at the National University of Singapore (NUS). He is also an Associate Professor at the NUS Faculty of Law, an Adjunct Senior Fellow at the S Rajaratnam School of International Studies (RSIS), Nanyang Technological University, and a member of the National Executive Committee of CSCAP Singapore. Since 2009 he has lectured in the summer programme at the Rhodes Academy of Oceans Law & Policy in Rhodes, Greece, and he is a member of the Governing Board for the Rhodes Academy. He also lectures in the international maritime boundary workshops organised by CIL. He has published widely on ocean law and policy issues.

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

BERNARD	Leonardo Bernard PhD Candidate, Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS), University of Wollongong Mr Leonardo Bernard was a Research Fellow with the Centre for International Law (CIL), National University of Singapore (NUS), where he focussed on international law and maritime boundaries disputes. Mr Bernard has researched and written extensively on the maritime disputes in the South China Sea and on the application of historic rights under international law. His paper on 'The Effect of Fisheries on Maritime Boundary Delimitation' was awarded the Law of the Sea Institute (LOSI) Research Competition Award for Early Career Researchers in 2012. He has been invited to present his research on the South China Sea and maritime boundary disputes not only in Singapore, but also in the USA, Australia, Japan, Malaysia, Indonesia, South Korea and China. Mr Bernard was also involved in the editing of the books Beyond Territorial Disputes in the South China Sea: Legal Framework for the Joint Development of Hydrocarbon Resources and The South China Sea Disputes and the Law of the Sea, which are part of the CIL International Law book series. He is currently the Associate Editor for the Asia-Pacific Journal of Ocean Law and Policy and a PhD candidate at the Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS) at the University of Wollongong, Australia.
DAVENPORT	Tara Davenport Senior Research Fellow, NUS Centre for International Law Dr Tara Davenport is currently an instructor at the Faculty of Law, National University of Singapore (NUS) and a Senior Research Fellow at the Centre for International Law at NUS. She has an LLB from the London School of Economics, an LLM in Maritime Law from NUS, and an LLM and JSD from Yale Law School. She received a Fulbright Scholarship in 2013 and the NUS Overseas Graduate Scholarship in 2014. She is a qualified Advocate and Solicitor in Singapore. Her current research interests are public international law, law of the sea and international dispute settlement. She has written on the South China Sea disputes, submarine cables and deep seabed mining. She was a member of the Legal Working Group on Liability for Environmental Harm from Activities in the Area convened by the Centre for International Governance Innovation (CIGI), the Commonwealth Secretariat and the Secretariat of the International Seabed Authority.

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

DJUNDJUNAN	Bebeb AKN Djundjunan Director for Legal Affairs and Territorial Treaties, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Republic of Indonesia Mr Bebeb AKN Djundjunan joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Indonesia in 1989. Since January 2017, he has been Director for Legal Affairs and Territorial Treaties at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Indonesia. His main responsibility is to deal with legal and related issues of land and maritime borders of Indonesia with its ten neighbouring countries. Mr Djundjunan assumed several positions at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 2005 to 2016, among others, as Director for Political-Security and Territorial Treaties, Director for Economic and Social Culture Treaties at the Directorate General for Legal and International Treaties, Deputy Director for Ocean's Treaties at Directorate of Political Security and Territorial Treaties, and Head of Law of the Sea section at the Ministry's Directorate of International Treaties. He was also assigned as Acting Director for International Law at Directorate General of Legal Administration at the Ministry of Law and Human Rights in 2007. His diplomatic career abroad is as follows. From 2012 to 2016, he was Deputy Chief of Mission at the Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia to the Royal Kingdom of Thailand in Bangkok with diplomatic rank of Minister, and Deputy Permanent Representative of the Republic of Indonesia to the UN-ESCAP in Bangkok. From 2001 to 2005, he was Indonesian Co-managers with Australia at the Regional Support Office of the Bali Process in Bangkok, and Consul for Consular Affairs at the Consulate General of the Republic of Indonesia in Vancouver BC, Canada. From 1994 to 1998, he was Second Secretary for Political Affairs/Legal Officer at the Indonesian Permanent Mission to the United Nations in Geneva. With special interests on law of the sea, regional maritime security, and intellectual property rights protection, Mr Djundjunan was invited as speaker and resource person to regional and multilateral forums since 1995. He has international law background from the University of Padjadjaran Bandung and the University of Kent, UK. He belongs to the 2002 Cohort on Conflict and Analyze Management at Royal Roads University Victoria BC, Canada. He is currently a doctoral candidate on Legal Studies at Faculty of Law, University of Padjadjaran.
---	---

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

HARRIS	Robert Harris Assistant Legal Adviser, East Asia and Pacific Affairs, United States Department of State Mr Robert Harris is Assistant Legal Adviser for East Asian and Pacific Affairs. In this position he provides legal advice to policy makers on legal issues related to US foreign policy in the Asia and Pacific region. Mr Harris has been a lawyer at the Department of State since 1985 and a member of the Senior Executive Service since 1992. At the State Department he has served as legal adviser and as head of delegation to more than 50 different bilateral and multilateral negotiations on topics such as migration, international aviation and trade in services, counterterrorism, counter-narcotics trafficking, extradition of criminal fugitives, mutual legal assistance in criminal matters, agreements for the protection and management of transboundary watercourses, maritime boundary delimitation, the international law of the sea, marine pollution and dumping at sea, transboundary environmental impact assessment, global environment protection (including persistent organic pollutants and other hazardous chemicals, biological diversity, biosafety, international conservation, and stratospheric ozone protection), sustainable development, international human rights, the protection of refugees, diplomatic privileges and immunities, and nuclear liability. Mr Harris is an adjunct instructor of international law at the Antonin Scalia School of Law at George Mason University teaching public international law, and a Lecturer in Law teaching the international law of the sea at Columbia Law School. Mr Harris is a graduate of Cornell University (AB History), Princeton University (Masters in Public and International Affairs) and Stanford Law School (Juris Doctor).
KOH	Professor Tommy Koh Chairman, CIL Governing Board, NUS Centre for International Law Professor Tommy Koh is Ambassador-at-Large at the Singapore Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Chairman of the Centre for International Law, Rector of Tembusu College at the National University of Singapore and Special Adviser of the Institute of Policy Studies. He is the Co-Chairman of the China-Singapore Forum, and the Japan-Singapore Symposium. Professor Koh was the President of the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea and chaired the Preparatory Committee and the Main Committee at the Earth Summit. He was Singapore's Permanent Representative to the United Nations for 13 years, Ambassador to the United States for 6 years, and the United Nations Secretary General's Special Envoy to Russia, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania. He was also Singapore's Chief Negotiator for the US-Singapore Free Trade Agreement and has chaired two dispute panels for the WTO. Professor Koh acted as Singapore's Agent in the case concerning Pedra Branca before the ICJ and in the Land Reclamation case before ITLOS. He is a student of international law and, in particular, on law of the sea and environmental law. Professor Koh was named the recipient of the 2014 Great Negotiator Award (an award given out by an inter-university consortium comprising Harvard University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Tufts University and the Future of Diplomacy Project at Harvard Kennedy School).

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

MARTIN	Lawrence Martin Partner, Foley Hoag, International Litigation and Arbitration Department, United States Mr Lawrence Martin is a partner in the firm's Washington, DC office and Deputy Chair of its International Litigation and Arbitration Department. He concentrates his practice in international disputes, typically involving foreign sovereign governments and/or their agencies and instrumentalities. Mr Martin represents foreign sovereign interests in proceedings before the world's leading dispute resolution fora, including the International Court of Justice (ICJ), the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS), the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) and the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). He has particular experience in disputes relating to the law of the sea and international environmental cases. Mr Martin also frequently represents foreign sovereigns in litigation before the courts of the United States. His capabilities of representing clients in high-profile disputes are reflected in his being named one of Washington, DC's top lawyers by Washingtonian magazine and ranked in Chambers Global in its listing of the world's top public international law practitioners. According to Chambers Global (2015), '[h]e is exceptional not only in terms of knowledge, expertise of the law, and organizational and managerial skills, but more importantly because of his character, attitude, ethics and advocacy'.
NGUYEN	Nguyen Dang Thang Director-General (Law & Policy), National Boundary Commission, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Viet Nam Dr Nguyen Dang Thang is currently Director-General (Law & Policy) at the National Boundary Commission of the Vietnamese Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In this capacity, he is responsible for researching and planning policies relating to the settlement and management of territorial and maritime issues, providing advice on questions concerning the international law of territory and the UN Convention on the Law of the Sea, and making recommendations on the interpretation and implementation of boundary treaties concluded by Viet Nam. He is also involved in various bilateral and regional negotiations relating to maritime delimitation, land border demarcation and the management of maritime issues. Before joining the National Boundary Commission in 2014, Dr Nguyen worked as a legal expert at the International Law and Treaties Department of the Foreign Ministry since 2000, covering wide-ranging international law issues. He maintains an interest in teaching and researching international law, holding a lectureship at the Faculty of International Law, Diplomatic Academy of Viet Nam. He has also been active in the promotion of international law in Asia and Viet Nam, serving as an Executive Member of the Asian Society of International Law since 2013 and being instrumental in the establishment of the Viet Nam Society of International Law in 2016. In 2018, he was appointed by the Government of Viet Nam to be a member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration. Dr Nguyen holds a BA in international relations (major in international law) from the Institute for International Relations (now Diplomatic Academy of Viet Nam), LLM (Public International Law) from the School of Law in the University of Nottingham, and a PhD (legal studies) from the Faculty of Law in the University of Cambridge.

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

ROACH	Ashley Roach Visiting Senior Principal Research Fellow, Centre for International Law Captain J Ashley Roach, JAGC, US Navy (retired) was an attorney adviser in the Office of the Legal Adviser, US Department of State, from 1988 until he retired at the end of January 2009. He was responsible for law of the sea matters. He is the author of many articles on law of the sea issues and the co-author of Excessive Maritime Claims, now in its third edition (Nijhoff 2012). He chairs the International Law Association Committee on Baselines under the International Law of the Sea dealing with straight baselines (2013–18) and is a member of the ILA Committee on Sea Level Rise and International Law. He is presently Visiting Senior Principal Research Fellow at the Centre for International Law, where he has participated in many events since 2013. He received his LLM (highest honours in public international law and comparative law) from the George Washington University School of Law in 1971 and his JD from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1963.
SCHOFIELD	Clive Schofield Head of Research, Global Oceans Institute, World Maritime University in Malmö, Sweden; Visiting Professor, Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS), University of Wollongong, Australia Professor Clive Schofield is Head of Research at the Global Oceans Institute, World Maritime University in Malmö, Sweden and is a Visiting Professor at ANCORS. He is a past Australian Research Council (ARC) Future Fellow and QEII Senior Research Fellow. He holds a PhD (geography) from the University of Durham, UK and an LLM from the University of British Columbia, Canada. Professor Schofield's research interests relate to international boundaries and particularly maritime boundary delimitation and marine jurisdictional issues. He has published over 250 scholarly publications, including 22 books and monographs on these issues as well as geo-technical aspects of the law of the sea and maritime security. Professor Schofield serves as an International Hydrographic Office (IHO)-nominated Observer on the Advisory Board on the Law of the Sea (ABLOS) and is a member of the International Law Association's Committee on International Law and Sea Level Rise. He has also been involved in the peaceful settlement of boundary and territory disputes, by providing advice to governments engaged in boundary negotiations and in dispute settlement cases before the International Court of Justice (ICJ). Additionally he served as an independent expert witness in the international arbitration case between the Philippines and China.
STERN	Amy Stern United States Department of State, (Attorney Adviser for Oceans, Environment and Scientific Affairs, US Department of State) Ms Amy Stern is an attorney-adviser in the US Department of State's Office of the Legal Adviser for Oceans, International Environmental and Scientific Affairs. In that capacity, Ms Stern is responsible for advising on a wide range of issues involving maritime entitlements and activities around the globe, including navigational rights and freedoms, utilisation of maritime resources, excessive maritime claims, protection of the marine environment, maritime law enforcement, and maritime boundary delimitation. She also serves as the head of the US delegation in maritime boundary negotiations between the United States and its neighbours.

CIL-ANCORS Workshop on Resolving Complex Maritime Boundaries 2019
Speakers' Profiles—In alphabetical order of surnames

YEE	Lionel Yee SC Deputy Attorney-General of Singapore Prior to his current appointment, Mr Lionel Yee was the Solicitor-General from 1 February 2014 to 13 January 2017. He served as a Judicial Commissioner of the Singapore Supreme Court from February 2013 to January 2014 and was Singapore's Second Solicitor-General from January 2011 to January 2013. Between July 2008 and May 2012, he was the Director-General of the International Affairs Division in the Attorney-General's Chambers of Singapore, which provides advice on public international law to all agencies of the Singapore Government. He was appointed a Senior Counsel in 2013.
------------	--