

Mr Derek Loh, Deputy Director-General (Economic & Social) Attorney-General's Chambers, Singapore

Mr Derek Loh was recently appointed as Deputy Director-General (Economic & Social) in the International Affairs Division of the Attorney-General's Chambers, where he has spent the last 11 years advising the Singapore government on public international law issues. Prior to joining the AGC in February 2009, he was in private practice specialising in international trade law. He was a trade policy official with the Singapore government from May 1996 to December 1999.