

Zhao Jinsong, Associate Research Fellow, International Cooperation and Service Center, ICSCC CAAC

Zhao Jinsong joined China Academy of Civil Aviation Science and Technology (CASTC) in July 2007, until July 2019. In July 2019, he joined ICSCC CAAC.

He is an associate research fellow at Law, Regulation and Standardization Institute of CASTC and ICSCC CAAC, specialized in general international law, international organization law and international air law. For the educational background, in 2001, he obtained a Bachelor degree of Editing and Publishing from Wuhan University PRC. And for further six-year study of international law he obtained a master degree in 2004 and doctoral degree in 2007, both in the Law School of Wuhan University PRC, a leading law school in China. In 2014, he was elected as a member of the Council of China Air Law Research Association and employed as part-time research fellow of Civil Aviation University of China in 2015. As a member of Chinese delegation, He attended a series of international conferences on Rome Convention Modernization, International Civil Aviation Security Convention Modernization, and Tokyo Convention Modernization. He has already published six works and around fifty papers.