

HUANG, Qianwei (Violet)

Qualifications: LL.B. Law (First Class Honours)

Violet is a graduate of the National University of Singapore, Faculty of Law. She is starting her legal career at the Attorney-General's Chambers, and will serve as a Justices' Law Clerk at the Supreme Court of Singapore in 2021. Violet's experience is truly an international one, having interned at the investment arbitration team in McDermott Will & Emery in Frankfurt, finished an exchange program in Hebrew University of Jerusalem, completed the Public International Law course by the Hague Academy of International Law.

During her time in NUS, she represented NUS as a part of the winning team in several international moots, including Jessup 2020 (Singapore National Round), Nuremberg Moot Court 2019, Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot 2018. She was the Secretary-Treasurer of the Criminal Justice Club, and a member of the Deputyship Project to help in-persons with deputyship applications in courts.

Violet is also an accredited mediator with the Singapore International Mediation Institute and a certified free diver. She is effectively bilingual in English and Mandarin Chinese, with professional proficiency in French.