

Vu Thi Chau Quynh (Ms.), Deputy Director General, Department of Legislation, Ministry of Planning & Investment (Vietnam). She has been participating in negotiations and implementation of bilateral investment treaties and investment chapters/agreements in Free Trade Agreements as well as formulating strategies and policies in this regard. She acted as government lawyer in investor-state disputes in which Viet Nam is the respondent and provided legal opinion on the interest of the government of Viet Nam in investment projects, such as investment in energy sector, or large scale or projects which require Governments' guarantees. She participated in the drafting of laws and regulations on business and investment, including the Law on Investment 2020 and its implementing regulations.