

UNCONVENTIONAL LAWMAKING IN THE LAW OF THE SEA: A CONVERSATION WITH THE CONTRIBUTORS

Date & Time: Thursday, 26 May 2022

5 – 6 pm (AEST)

Location: Online

This event brings together many of the contributors to Unconventional Lawmaking in the Law of the Sea \(Oxford University Press, 2022\) for a conversation with the Editor, Natalie Klein, to celebrate the book's release.

Contributors to the book:

Tutku Bektas • Tara Davenport • Ellen Hey • Yurika Ishii • Marie Jacobsson • Elsa Kelly • Chie Kojima • Liesbeth Lijnzaad • Nilüfer Oral • Irini Papanicolopulu • Anna Petrig • Rosemary Rayfuse • Zoe Scanlon • Karen Scott • Zhen Sun • Erika Techera • Anastasia Telesetsky • Seline Trevisanut

This book:

- Examines the role of informal agreements and informal lawmaking in diverse areas of the law of the sea
- Highlights how diverse actors, processes, and non-binding agreements set standards and inform decision-making in ocean governance
- Covers contemporary topics such as maritime security, marine environment, fisheries, ocean resources, technology, shipping, and navigation
- Provides a fascinating case study of lawmaking in international law with valuable lessons for the law of treaties, state responsibility, and the sources of law
- Offers informed perspectives on law of the sea from specialist female scholars and practitioners from across the globe

Dr. Natalie Klein is a Professor at UNSW Sydney's Faculty of Law and Justice, an Australian Research Council Future Fellow, and President of the International Law Association (Australian Branch).

RSVP: www.eventbrite.com.au/e/unconventional-lawmaking-in-the-law-of-the-sea-a-conversation-tickets-327742004157

The event is supported by the International Law Association (Australia) and UNSW Sydney's Faculty of Law & Justice.

UNSW
SYDNEY