

Marie Jacobsson

Marie Jacobsson is the Principal Legal Adviser on International Law at the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs. In 2015 she was appointed Member of the Swedish Women Mediation Network and designated Special Representative for Inclusive Peace Processes by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

Marie Jacobsson was a Member of the United Nations International Law Commission (ILC) 2007-2016 and Special Rapporteur for the topic 'Protection of the environment in relation to armed conflicts'. She is a Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration, a designated arbitrator under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, designated arbitrator under the Protocol on Environmental Protection to the Antarctic Treaty and designated Conciliator (and previously Alternate Arbitrator) of the Court of Conciliation and Arbitration within the OSCE.

Ambassador Jacobsson's work focuses on international peace and security matters. She has extensive experience of high-level multilateral and bilateral negotiations on such matters as international humanitarian law, law of the sea, polar law, international environmental law, boundary delimitation and regional security affairs. Marie Jacobsson has also worked as Security Policy Analyst at the Swedish Armed Forces and led a project on the Baltic Sea and International Law at the Swedish Defence University.

She has a solid academic background and is Associate Professor of International Law at Lund University. She holds a Doctor of Law from the University of Lund, Sweden. The title of her thesis is "The Antarctic Treaty System - Erga Omnes or Inter Partes?" She has published extensively and is a Member of many national and international academic boards and Think-tanks.