CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW
National University of Singapore

International law cannot call itself
“international” without the voice of Asia

Emeritus Professor S Jayakumar
Special Adviser, International Advisory Panel, NUS
Centre for International Law

MISSION AND VISION

The mission of CIL is to enable Singapore and the Asia-Pacific region to play a more significant role in the promotion and development of international law. CIL's vision is to become a regional intellectual hub and thought leader for research on and teaching of international law.

Centre for International Law

CIL was established as a university-level research institute at NUS in response to the growing need for international law thought leadership and capacity building in the Asia Pacific region. CIL's focus areas of research and training are Ocean Law and Policy, ASEAN Law and Policy, Investment Law and Policy, International Dispute Resolution, Nuclear Law and Policy, Teaching and Researching International Law in Asia (TRILA), Global Health and Policy, Climate Change, and Public International Law. In addition to the numerous specialized courses the CIL also holds the annual CIL eAcademy on International Law, ASEAN Law Academy, Singapore International Arbitration Academy, and the International Trade Academy.

CIL works closely with its partner organizations in Singapore: the NUS Law Faculty, Attorney-General's Chambers Singapore, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Singapore and the Singapore Maritime Institute. CIL also collaborates with the Rhodes Academy of Oceans Law and Policy; Center for Oceans Law and Policy, University of Virginia; and Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS), University of Wollongong.

Key Publications

NUS Centre for International Law Book Series

This book series examines international issues from legal, political and policy perspectives, providing critical analysis on issues of international law relevant to the region, including ocean law and policy, ASEAN law and policy, trade and investment law and policy, and international dispute resolution. This book series includes three books on the South China Sea.

ASEAN Integration Through Law Book Series

Published by Cambridge University Press, the groundbreaking ASEAN Integration Book Series written by experts on ASEAN law and policy is the authoritative voice on legal integration in the ASEAN community. The 18 titles (to date) cover topics including the governance and institutions of ASEAN; the ASEAN Economic Community — architecture, trade and investment; compliance, enforcement, monitoring and dispute settlement across ASEAN; and ASEAN external relations.

International law is Singapore's shield and sword.

Ambassador Tommy Koh
Chairman, International Advisory Panel
NUS Centre for International Law

CIL Singapore Academy of International Law (CIL Academy)

Designed to train government officials and private practitioners in investment treaty arbitration, the academy is taught by the world's leading experts in international arbitration and combines theory, substantive and procedural law, and skill training in the field of investor-state arbitration.

Singapore International Arbitration Academy (SIAA)

Designed to train government officials and private practitioners in investment treaty arbitration, the academy is taught by the world's leading experts in international arbitration and combines theory, substantive and procedural law, and skill training in the field of investor-state arbitration.

CIL Academy of International Trade Law

This course constitutes the essential framework, the 'Higher Law' or even the 'Economic Constitution' of the international legal order. Taught by Professor Joseph Weiler – the fundamental building blocks of the international economic legal order are highlighted.

ASEAN Law Academy

The ASEAN Law Academy was launched in 2018 when Singapore was ASEAN Chair, as one of the flagship contributions towards ASEAN Community-building. The academy offers undergraduate and master's level courses on ASEAN Law and Policy, and syllabi for professors to teach similar courses.

CIL-ANCORS Maritime Boundaries Training Course

The Maritime Boundaries Workshop equips government officials with a range of specialist legal and technical skills in negotiating maritime boundary agreements, so that officials can assist their governments with maritime boundary delimitation, which is essential for good international relations and effective ocean management.

Teaching and Researching International Law in Asia (TRILA)

The TRILA conference provides a forum to identify the challenges facing Asian law schools and address them in an informed, collaborative manner, in order to train a generation of Asian scholars, practitioners and diplomats who can engage in global debates and develop initiatives that enhance the international rule of law.
