

Mary-Elisabeth Chong

Deputy Senior State Counsel, International Affairs Division, Attorney-General's Chambers

Mary is a Deputy Senior State Counsel at the International Affairs Division of the Attorney-General's Chambers in Singapore, where her work includes advising on public international law matters, with a focus on international security law, the law of the sea, international environmental law and international dispute settlement. She has been involved in UN negotiations on cybersecurity issues since 2019, including at the current Open-Working Group on security of and in the use of ICTs (2021-2025). She has also participated in multilateral and bilateral negotiations relating to the law of the sea and climate change. She holds a Master in International Dispute Settlement from the Graduate Institute of Geneva and Geneva University, and a Bachelor of Laws from the National University of Singapore. She was formerly a fellow of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea.