Willis Lim

Director for the National Threat Analysis Centre, Cybersecurity Agency of Singapore

Willis Lim is the Director of the National Cyber Threat Analysis Centre within CSA, which performs all source analysis of cyber threats and other developments that threaten security in cyberspace. Before joining CSA in 2018, Willis was deputy director of Policy in the National Security Coordination Secretariat in the Prime Minister's Office, as well as the head of the Risk Assessment and Horizon Scanning Programme Office.