

Ting SIM is the Legal Director at GenZero. She leads the legal team in enabling the execution of climate investments at GenZero into technology-based solutions, nature-based solutions and solutions that enable the development of effective and credible carbon markets ecosystem.

Before GenZero, she was at Shell for around 13 years, where she was the lead lawyer for significant projects and assets in the energy value chain - the Upstream, LNG & gas, Downstream and energy transition projects.