We are pleased to announce the upcoming Systemic Integration of Climate Change in International Law conference to be held on 28-29 August 2025, at Copthorne King's Hotel Singapore.

This conference is co-convened by the Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore and the Centre for Sustainable Development Law and Sustainability, Durham University, and supported by the Institute of International Legal Studies, University of the Philippines College of Law and the Centre for Environmental Law and Climate Justice, Universitas Indonesia Faculty of Law.

Join us for two days of insightful presentations and discussions, featuring distinguished speakers in the keynote speech and high-level roundtable on the first day of the conference. Confirmed speakers include:

- HE Rena Lee, Ambassador for International Law, Singapore
- Ambassador Luciano Mazza de Andrade, Ambassador of Brazil to Singapore
- Dr. Winston Chow, Professor, Singapore Management University (SMU) and Co-Chair IPCC WG-II
- Mr. Frederick Teo, Chief Executive Officer (CEO), GenZero

Panel discussions will address issues of Climate Change Commitments under the Paris Agreement; Just Transition; Intersection of Climate Change Law and other Areas; AI, Technology, Innovation and Climate Change; Legal Responsibility for Climate Change, Climate Litigation and Reparations and Trends in International Environmental Law and Governance.

Further details about the agenda, additional speakers and registration details will follow.

Mark your calendars—we look forward to your participation!
