

CIL

CENTRE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW
National University of Singapore

GOVERNING AI FOR PEOPLE, PLANET & PROGRESS: AI SOVEREIGNTY AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

Asian Regional Challenges, Global Implications and Global South Perspectives

India AI Impact Pre-Summit Event

Organised By

Centre for International Law
National University of Singapore

12 December 2025

Supported By

Speakers, Moderators, and Presenters Profiles

Opening Panel

Dr Jon Truby

Visiting Research Associate Professor, Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore

Dr Jon Truby is a Visiting Research Associate Professor in AI & Technology Law at the Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore, where he leads research on the intersection between AI law and international law, with a focus on sustainability and the application of AI governance to the SDGs. He chairs the International Law Association Committee on AI & Technology Law and serves as a participating expert to the OECD.AI Expert Group on AI Compute and Climate. Previously Director of the Centre for Law and Development at Qatar University, he has been an Academic Visitor at Oxford's Institute for Ethics in AI and a Visiting Fellow at Newcastle University Law School. He holds a PhD from Newcastle Law School and practiced in a top global law firm in London before academia.

Dr Nilufer Oral

Director of the Centre for International Law (NUS)

Nilufer Oral is Director of the Centre of International Law at the National University of Singapore. She is a member of the UN International Law Commission (ILC) and served as Co-chairperson of the 74th session w. She is also a Co-chair of the ILC Study Group on sea-level rise in relation to international law. In addition, she is a member The Hague Academy of International Law Curatorium and an associate member of the Institut de Droit International. She was a legal advisor and climate change negotiator for Turkish MFA (2009-2016). She is currently a Member of the Committee of Legal Experts of the Commission of Small Island States on Climate Change and International Law (COSIS). She is a Distinguished Fellow of the Law of the Sea Institute at Berkeley Law and a Senior Fellow of the National University of Singapore Law School.

Opening Panel (Continued)

Ms. Lucia Velasco

Head of AI Policy, United Nations Office for Digital & Emerging Technologies (UN ODET)

Lucia Velasco is a Spanish-Argentinian economist and researcher who serves as the Head of AI Policy at the United Nations Office for Digital and Emerging Technologies. She advises the UN Under-Secretary-General and Special Envoy on Technology and guides the Organisation's work on AI governance. Her career began in the Spanish Parliament, followed by senior government roles and later the World Economic Forum in Geneva, where she led work on AI governance. She is affiliated with the Oxford Martin School and the Maastricht School of Economics, serves as an independent expert to the European Commission and the OECD, is the author of a book, and chairs the Future of Work stream within the Global Partnership on AI (GPAI).

Mr. S. Krishnan

Secretary of the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), Government of India

S. Krishnan is the Secretary in India's Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology and leads the country's national AI strategy. He steers India's AI policy priorities and the vision behind the upcoming AI Impact Summit while overseeing MeitY's central role in supporting the growth of India's AI ecosystem. A member of the Indian Administrative Service since 1989, he has over 35 years of public service, including roles as Additional Chief Secretary for Industries, Investment Promotion and Commerce in the Government of Tamil Nadu and Senior Advisor in the Office of the Executive Director for India, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, and Bhutan at the International Monetary Fund. He has also represented India in the G20 Expert Groups on International Financial Architecture and Global Financial Safety Nets.

Ambassador Indra Mani Pandey

Secretary General, BIMSTEC

His Excellency Ambassador Indra Mani Pandey is the Secretary General of BIMSTEC, having assumed office in January 2024. A distinguished career diplomat of the 1990 batch of the Indian Foreign Service, he has served as India's Permanent Representative to the United Nations and other International Organisations in Geneva, as well as Ambassador of India to the Sultanate of Oman. He has also held senior postings, including Deputy Chief of Mission in France and Consul General in Guangzhou. In his current role, His Excellency provides leadership to BIMSTEC's efforts to deepen regional cooperation among the Member States of the Bay of Bengal region.

PANEL 1: Global Norms and Regional Cooperation

MODERATOR

Mr. Sze Hong Lam (Ocean)

Research Fellow, Centre for International Law, NUS.

Sze Hong Lam (‘Ocean’) is a researcher at the Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore. He holds an Advanced LLM from Leiden University, as well as a PCLL and LLB from the University of Hong Kong. He has previously worked at the Legal Office of the OPCW and the Office of the Prosecutor of the IRMCT and has been an elected member of the Steering Committee of the ESIL Interest Group on the History of International Law since 2023. His postdoctoral research at CIL focuses on how Artificial Intelligence challenges existing doctrines of international law, including sovereignty and individual criminal responsibility, with a particular interest in the position of small states in great power competition.

Mr. Looi Teck Kheong

Global AI Ambassador, Global Council for Responsible AI (GCRAI)

Mr Looi Teck Kheong is the Global AI Ambassador at the Global Council for Responsible AI and Principal Consultant specialising in digital economy regulation and governance. Previously, he served as Assistant Director for Market Integration of the ASEAN Economic Community, a role he held concurrently with the position of Head of ASEAN’s Competition, Consumer Protection, and Intellectual Property Division, where he directed the development of the region’s core digital market policies. He is also the author of the internationally acclaimed book Cybersecurity – Guardians of the Digital Frontier (Amazon 2024), which explores cybersecurity laws, governance, and policies in Singapore and the region. With over 35 years of experience, Mr Looi has played a leading role in shaping digital and technological policy frameworks that balance innovation, competition, and ethics at a regional level, including developing the ASEAN Consolidated Strategy for the Fourth Industrial Revolution. Mr Looi is also an advocate and solicitor admitted to the Supreme Court of Singapore in 1990, with extensive private practice experience before transitioning into public policy, regulatory, and strategic legal advisory.

Professor Stephen Minas

Professor of Law, Peking University, China

Dr Stephen Minas is a professor of law at the Peking University School of Transnational Law (STL) and director of its Sustainability Innovation and Law Circle (SILC). Stephen is the chair of the UN Climate Technology Centre & Network Advisory Board, a member and former chair of the UNFCCC Technology Executive Committee, and has participated as both a negotiator and co-facilitator in UN climate negotiations. Stephen is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a member of the roster of experts for appeal and grievance panels of the Paris Agreement Crediting Mechanisms, and a member of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law (WCEL) and its Climate Change Specialist Group.

PANEL 1: Global Norms and Regional Cooperation (Continued)

Mr. Yoganaadan Kadirikamu Kandasamy

Director, Science, Technology and Innovation, Health and Human Resources Division, BIMSTEC

Mr. Yoganaadan Kadirikamu Kandasamy joined the BIMSTEC Secretariat on 1 September 2025 as a Director representing Sri Lanka. As a Grade One Officer of the Sri Lanka Foreign Service, he brings over two decades of experience in diplomacy, economic affairs, and development administration, with diplomatic assignments in Sri Lanka Missions in Amman, Canberra, London and Beijing. He most recently served as Director General of the Middle East Division at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Foreign Employment and Tourism. He previously led the Economic Affairs (Multilateral) Division, and has served in the East Asia and Pacific, South Asia and SAARC, Overseas Administration, Public Diplomacy and Consular Divisions of the Ministry. He holds degrees in Business Administration, Peace and Conflict Studies and Development Studies, and has completed advanced training in Conflict Resolution at the United Nations University and Economic Diplomacy at Harvard University. Mr Yoganaadan has represented Sri Lanka at major international and regional summits, including SAARC, CHOGM and CICA.

Professor Rafael Dean Brown

Clinical Associate Professor, College of Law, Qatar University

Rafael Dean Brown is a Clinical Associate Professor at Qatar University College of Law. His scholarship focuses on AI law and regulation, publishing on AI personhood, open data, and regulatory sandboxes. His scholarship on these issues has influenced EU, US, and UK policy. In 2025, he was appointed Co-Rapporteur of the ILA's Committee on AI & Technology Law. He has also been seconded to the Qatar Ministry of Foreign Affairs as Legal Adviser and member of the Qatar Delegation in a peace mediation process.

Dr Duygu Özlük

Assistant Professor, Department of International Relations at Selcuk University, Türkiye

Duygu Özlük is an Assistant Professor in the Department of International Relations at Selcuk University, Türkiye. She holds a PhD in International Relations from Selcuk University and an LL.M. in International Law and Global & Legal Studies from Case Western Reserve University. She conducted postdoctoral studies at Queen's University, Canada, and carried out her doctoral research at the University of Delaware. Her research interests include AI governance, democracy promotion, and Arctic politics, with a broader focus on the intersection of law, technology, and international relations.

Mr. Josh Lee Kok Thong

Managing Director, Future of Privacy Forum APAC

Josh Lee Kok Thong is Managing Director (Asia-Pacific) at the Future of Privacy Forum and a Senior Research Affiliate at the Centre for Digital Law, Singapore Management University. He holds an LL.B (Hons) from the SMU Yong Pung How School of Law and an LL.M from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law. Previously, he served in the Singapore Government, including as Legal Policy Manager for AI governance at the Personal Data Protection Commission, where he contributed to national policy on AI and data protection. His work focuses on AI governance, data protection, technology law and online harms.

PANEL 2: AI for Development & Inclusion

Professor Niloufer Selvadurai

Associate Dean (Research), Macquarie Law School

Professor Niloufer Selvadurai is a technology law scholar who analyses the regulation of emerging and evolving technologies, focussing on AI, digital privacy and cybercrime law. Niloufer is the Director of Research and Innovation, Macquarie Law School, Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia, and the Co-Chair of the Australian Law Associate Deans Research Network. In the technology law sphere, she is Co-Director of the Data Horizons Research Centre and the Program Lead for 'AI and the Law' at the Centre for Applied AI. Formerly, Niloufer was a Solicitor at Ashurst, Sydney, and worked at Allens.

Dr Ahmed Al-Sulaiti

Qatar Mission to WTO, WIPO & UNCTAD, HBKU

Mr Ahmed Essa Al-Sulaiti is a distinguished legal counsel and senior trade diplomat with over 13 years of experience at the intersection of international law, trade policy and strategic diplomacy. He is a recognised authority on WTO law, IP governance, and the use of ADR in sensitive geopolitical contexts. Recent speaking engagements include the UN Headquarters in Geneva (May 2025) on Building Legal Capacity in Arab States, the WTO Public Forum (Sept 2024) on Sustainable Trade and Entrepreneurship, Waseda University's IPIRA Conference (April 2025) on ADR in IP Disputes and SDG 16, and Harvard University's Gulf Creatives Conference (May 2024) on IP as a Catalyst for Development. He is an architect of Qatar's national-level IP and ADR frameworks aligned with SDG 16, working through multilateral platforms co-organized with WIPO, QRFI, the ILA-GCC and the Qatar International Court. He has served as lead convenor of landmark panels such as the Madrid Protocol and WIPO's ADR Mechanisms for SMEs and has spoken at major summits, including the Doha Forum (Dec 2024) on International Negotiation in an Age of Disruption and UNCTAD's February 2025 dialogue on Rethinking IIAs in the Context of SDG 2030.

Dr. Samuel White

Senior Research Fellow, Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore

Dr Samuel White is Senior Research Fellow in Peace and Security at the Centre for International Law, National University of Singapore. He serves as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society, as well as an editor of the United States Military Academy's Articles of War and the Adelaide Law Review. He holds visiting and adjunct positions with the Australian Defence Force Academy, the Australian War Memorial, the University of New England and the University of Adelaide, and has been recognised as an Associate Fellow of the Royal Historical Society and a Fellow of the National Library of Australia. Alongside his academic work, Dr White has served as an officer in both the Royal Australian Infantry Corps and the Australian Army Legal Corps in tactical, operational and strategic roles. He is editor of the multi-volume series The Laws of Yesterday's Wars and has worked as a Senior Legal Officer in the Office of International Law, Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department. He is admitted to practise in Australia and New Zealand. At CIL, he is contributing to the West Point Manual on International Law Applicable to Artificial Intelligence in Warfare, a project co-led by the Lieber Institute for Law and Land Warfare at the United States Military Academy at West Point, with the support of an international consortium of experts and institutions, including the Centre for International Law, NUS.

Mr. Duc Anh Nguyen

PhD Scholar, Australian National University, College of Law, Governance & Policy

Duc Anh Nguyen is a lecturer at the Faculty of International Law, VNU University of Law, Hanoi, Vietnam. His research interests lie in international trade law, digital trade rules, and the intersection between technology and global trade regulation. He obtained his master's degree in European and International Business Law, and is currently a PhD candidate at the Australian National University, College of Law, Governance and Policy. His doctoral research focuses on digital trade rules and cross-border data flow commitments in free trade agreements, particularly in the context of developing countries.

Dr Anjali Yadav

Assistant Professor of Law, University of Delhi, India

Dr Anjali Yadav is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Delhi. She completed her LL.M. at the School of Law, Rights and Constitutional Governance, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS) Mumbai, with field-intensive research on governance and conflict in the Red Corridor regions, and later earned her PhD in Law from the University of Delhi on the legitimization of street vendors' rights in Varanasi through combined doctrinal and empirical methods. She has worked in public policy as a research associate under the Chief Minister's Young Professionals for Development Programme in Madhya Pradesh, conducting evidence-based assessments of government schemes, administrative processes, and welfare delivery. Her earlier field projects include district-level research on farmer suicides in Maharashtra and studies on socio-economic vulnerabilities in conflict-affected regions. Dr Yadav has presented at international forums in Edinburgh, Hong Kong, Chiang Mai, and Mumbai on themes such as AI-driven human rights enforcement, cross-border governance, trade agreements, climate-linked regulation, and rights in the informal economy. Her current research focuses on AI, cross-border accountability, and global supply chain governance.

PANEL 3: Sustainable AI & Environmental Governance

Dr Hossam M. Aly

Assistant Professor, Abu Dhabi University

Dr. Hossam Gamaleldin M. Aly is an Assistant Professor of Commercial Law at Abu Dhabi University. Dr. Aly is an international arbitration specialist with over twenty years of experience, admitted to the Cairo and Paris Bars and accredited as a solicitor in England and Wales. He speaks English, French and Arabic. He has extensive legal experience spanning public and private sectors in commercial and investment dispute resolution and a recognized expertise in cross border transactional matters. He also acted as Counsel and Arbitrator in commercial and investment arbitral complex disputes, with a focus expertise in Construction, Oil&Gas and Investor-State arbitration.

Ms Elizabeth WU

Transnational Governance Consultant/Lead Advisor, Environmental Justice and Transnational Governance, Climate Governance Malaysia

Elizabeth WU is a transnational governance consultant and international dispute resolution lawyer focusing on the role that international economic law can play in driving environmental and climate justice. With over 13 years of experience spanning transnational corporate accountability, climate and environmental governance, and complex cross-border dispute resolution, she works with the public and private sectors and civil society to lead and develop transnational governance initiatives in Asia. She is an expert consultant with the United Nations Development Program Global Policy Network and lead advisor for environmental justice and transnational governance with Climate Governance Malaysia. She formerly led international environmental law NGO ClientEarth's Asia-Pacific judicial convening program and corporate, financial, and international economic law initiatives in Southeast Asia and broader Asia. Previously, she practiced international arbitration and litigation with Rajah & Tann Singapore LLP and was a Deputy Public Prosecutor and State Counsel with the Attorney-General's Chambers of Singapore. She is a Global Fellow with the Centre for International Law, NUS, the Singapore Rapporteur for arbitration and international commercial courts for the International Academy of Comparative Law, and Singapore Rapporteur with the Sabin Center for Climate Change Law's Global Climate Change Litigation Network.

Ms Seah Park

Visiting Research Scholar, Nanyang Technological University (NTU) Digital Trust Centre, Singapore

Seah Park is an incoming Visiting Scholar at Nanyang Technological University (NTU) Digital Trust Center in Singapore. A career diplomat with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Korea since 2006, she possesses wide-ranging diplomatic expertise spanning international law, trade, regional affairs, and emerging technology governance. Most recently, she served as the Director of the AI Safety & Trust Team at the Presidential Council on National AI Strategy. Prior to this, she served as the Director of Energy & Scientific Affairs and the Director of Africa Division 1 at the Foreign Ministry. She holds an M.A. in Economic Law & Global Governance Studies (Summa Cum Laude) from Sciences Po Law School in Paris and an M.A. in International Relations from Ewha Womans University. She is participating in this workshop in her personal capacity, and the views expressed are strictly her own and do not reflect the official position of the Korean Government.

Mr Noble Lo

Hong Kong Polytechnic University

Noble Lo completed his master's degrees at HKU and Oxford. He received his Juris Doctor from CUHK. He has actively pursued specialized training that bridges law and technology, completing a Certificate in Generative AI for the Legal Profession at UC Berkeley and a Certificate in Computer Science for Lawyers at Harvard Law School. Professionally, mini pupillages at Liberty and Des Voeux Chambers, along with internships at Clifford Chance and Linklaters, have given him practical experience in advocacy and insight into technology's transformative role in global legal practice. He is currently teaching at the Hong Kong Polytechnic University CPCE.

Ms Ada Yuen

Funds and Regulatory Executive, Hong Kong.

Ada earned her Juris Doctor degree and master's degrees in Linguistics and English Language Teaching at CUHK. She is a Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist (CAMS) and Associate Anti-Money Laundering Professional (AAMLPP). She also obtained an International Diploma in Anti-money Laundering from the International Compliance Association. She is now a Funds and Regulatory Executive at an independent local law firm in Hong Kong.

PANEL 4: AI in Justice Delivery Systems (UNESCO Guidelines Launch)

Ms Celine Lange (Moderator)

Research Fellow - Lead, Programme Development, International Dispute Resolution, Centre for International Law at NUS

Celine Lange is a Research Fellow at the Centre for International Law (CIL) at the National University of Singapore, where she is leading the development of the International Dispute Resolution programme. Celine graduated in 2019 with a LLM from the National University of Singapore, where she specialised in International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution. Celine also holds a Master's Degree in Law from Strasbourg University, France, specialising in International Human Rights Law, and a Master's Degree from the Paris Institute of Political Studies (IEP Paris). Prior to joining CIL, Celine worked in private practice, at the Arbitration Chambers Singapore, and previously at the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg. Celine has lived in New York as well, where she worked at Columbia University Law School to assist a Professor of Human and Constitutional Rights.

Dr Kamel El Hilali

AI & the Rule of Law Specialist, UNESCO

Dr. Kamel El Hilali works as an AI & the Rule of Law Specialist at UNESCO where he develops capacity-building programmes and tools for judicial operators (judges, prosecutors, court staff, lawyers and scholars) across the globe on AI, Ethics, and Human Rights. These tools include a Global Toolkit on AI & the Rule of Law, a MOOC on AI & the Judiciary, and Guidelines on the use of AI in courts and tribunals. In parallel, Kamel works as a consultant at the Paris-based law firm Lysias Partners LLP and is an affiliated Fellow with the Information Society Project at Yale. Kamel also serves as a Visiting Professor at Paris Pantheon Assas University, where he teaches a course on Technology, Democracy and Human Rights. He previously taught Cyberlaw and the digitalization strategy of the French Government at St John's University (Paris), Paris Cité University, the Catholic University of Lille (Issy-les-Moulineaux), the Catholic Institute of Paris. Kamel holds a PhD in Law from Paris Pantheon Assas University (France).

Ms Johanna Leung

Head of Legal, Microsoft ASEAN

Johanna leads the ASEAN Legal Affairs team at Microsoft, where she oversees legal and regulatory matters in Southeast Asia, shapes legal strategy, ensures compliance, manages risk and supports business growth. Previously, she led legal support for Microsoft Asia's Strategic Partnerships team, advising on complex commercial cloud and AI transactions across the region.

Before joining Microsoft, she headed legal support for the digital financial services business of Sea Limited, focusing on regulatory issues for banks, insurers, payment institutions and other financial entities, as well as fintech product structuring and market expansion across Asia, EMEA and Latin America. Earlier in her career, she spent over a decade at Linklaters in London, Hong Kong and Singapore, advising corporates and investment banks on major M&A, equity capital markets deals, corporate reorganisations and joint ventures, with a focus on financial services and technology. She is dual qualified in England and Wales and in Hong Kong.

PANEL 4: AI in Justice Delivery Systems (Continued)

Mr Eric Chin

Asia Pacific NewLaw Director

Eric is the Legal Transformation Leader at PwC, specialising in legal innovation, legal process re-engineering, digital transformation, strategy, legal technology, and legal generative AI for legal departments and law firms. Eric also leads Legal Generative AI for the NewLaw practice in the Asia Pacific region. He is also engaged in building grassroots legal technology and legal innovation movement through the formation of ASEAN LegalTech Association and Legal Hackers Melbourne.

Dr Peerapat Chokesuwattanaskul

Assistant Professor in Law and Economics at Chulalongkorn University and Senior Partner at VA Partners.

Dr Peerapat Chokesuwattanaskul is a Senior Partner at VA Partners, a law and economics consulting firm in Thailand, and an Assistant Professor in Law and Economics at Chulalongkorn University. His work combines law, economics and data science to address complex regulatory and market problems. He has previously served as a Supervisor in Economics at the University of Cambridge, a Data Scientist at Agoda, and has held roles at the Department of Trade Negotiations as well as Advisor to the Minister of Commerce and Deputy Prime Minister of Thailand. His practice and research focus on competition law, legal informatics, law and technology, and law and economics. He has advised both private and public bodies in Thailand and internationally, including the OECD, ADB and national reform and regulatory bodies. In addition to a law degree and lawyer's licence, he holds two doctorates, in Business Administration (JDBA) and in Development Economics from the University of Cambridge.

Professor Christine Kaddous

Professor, University of Geneva

Professor Christine Kaddous is Professor of European and International Law at the University of Geneva, where she directs the Centre for European Legal Studies (CEJE) and the Executive Master in European and International Governance (MEIG). She holds an LL.M from the University of Cambridge and a Master's degree from the Université Libre de Bruxelles, and is also a Jean Monnet Chair ad personam and Visiting Professor at the University of Paris Panthéon Assas. Her expertise spans Swiss, European and international law, with a focus on trade, customs, investment, intellectual property, transport, EU-Switzerland bilateral relations and dispute resolution. Her research further covers sustainable development, responsible business conduct, environmental and social standards and the 2030 Agenda. Professor Kaddous has extensive experience in both government and legal practice, has chaired the Swiss Society of International Law and currently serves as Vice-President of the Swiss Association for European Law. She also advises public authorities and private sector actors and sits on the boards of the Geneva Free Ports and Warehouses and the Swiss Diabetes Foundation.

PANEL: ILA Introductory session

Senior Counsel KOH Swee Yen

Senior Counsel Partner WongPartnership LLP & President ILA Singapore Branch

Koh Swee Yen, Senior Counsel, is the Head of the International Arbitration Practice of WongPartnership. She is the Co-Chair of the IPBA Dispute Resolution and Arbitration Committee, and a former Vice-Chair of the IBA Arbitration Committee. She is a member of the ICC Court. Her practice has a particular focus on complex, high-value, and multi-jurisdictional disputes involving asset recovery, commodities, energy, fraud, infrastructure, international trade, joint ventures, transport, and technology. She regularly appears before the Singapore Courts (including the Singapore International Commercial Court) and in international commercial and investment arbitrations under the major institutional rules, including ICSID, ICC, ICDR, LCIA, SIAC, and UNCITRAL. She is admitted to the Roll of Solicitors of England & Wales and has rights of audience before the DIFC Courts. She also sits as an arbitrator and has been designated by Singapore to the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators, being one of only four designees. She is also currently the President of the International Law Association's Singapore Branch.

Mr David Low

Director (Legal) MDDI Singapore & ILA AI & Technology Committee Member

David Low is Director of the Legal Division at Singapore's Smart Nation Group, where he provides legal advice on issues relating to technology, media, and telecommunications law, and in particular on Singapore's Smart Nation and digital government initiatives. He also serves as one of the Vice-Chairpersons of the Singapore Legal Service's Technology Law Cluster, a community of public sector lawyers developing expertise in technology law so as to help the Singapore Government address its fast-evolving technology needs and chart Singapore's digital future. He has also been nominated as Singapore representative to ILA AI & Technology Committee.

Mr Mahdev Mohan

Practice Head & of Counsel, KGP Legal & ILA AI & Technology Committee Member

Mahdev leads the AI & Technology and Regulatory Compliance & Disputes practices at KGP Legal. With over 15 years PQE, his experience includes assisting Senior Counsels, serving as a Nominated Member of Parliament (NMP) and leading a global legal policy team at Google LLC, focused on product launches in APAC and risk mitigation of mitigating AI risks of new internet users in emerging markets. He advises multinationals and high net-worth clients on complex technology-related crises and disputes. Mahdev is a former legal academic at SMU and a Fulbright Scholar from Stanford Law School.