

Mr Anees Ahmed

Mr Anees Ahmed is a senior United Nations legal official and international criminal law expert, currently serving as Director of Rule of Law and Security Institutions with the United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS). He brings extensive experience across the UN international justice system, having held senior roles at leading international courts and tribunals.

Prior to this appointment, he held a number of senior leadership roles within the United Nations, including Director of Evidence Management at the UN Investigative Team to Promote Accountability for Crimes Committed by Da'esh/ISIL, Principal Coordination Officer at UNMISS, and Chief of Legal Affairs at the UN Mission in Liberia and the UN Mission for Ebola Emergency Response. He also served as Chief of Chambers at the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, and as a Senior Prosecutor at the UN tribunals for the Khmer Rouge and the former Yugoslavia.

Mr Ahmed holds a Master of Laws from the London School of Economics, where he was a Chevening Scholar, and is a barrister qualified in England and Wales, as well as in India.