

As an international lawyer, diplomat and Member of the International Law Commission (ILC), Dr Mangklatanakul has had a distinguished career in international law and diplomacy, serving in senior positions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Thailand and participating in major negotiations on treaties and dispute settlement mechanisms. Her expertise encompasses treaty law, international economic law, investment law and dispute resolution. As an ILC member, she contributes to the progressive development and clarification of international legal norms, including those related to investment protection and dispute settlement.