² Article amended by the 2021 Abidjan Add Prot.

Article 2: Definitions³

For the purpose of the Acts of the Union, the following terms shall have the meanings defined below:

1. Postal service: all international postal services, whose scope is determined and regulated by the Acts of the Union. The main obligations of postal services are to satisfy certain social and economic objectives of member countries, by ensuring the collection, processing, transmission and delivery of postal items.
2. Member country: a country that fulfills the conditions of article 3 of the Constitution.
3. Single postal territory (one and the same postal territory): the obligation upon the contracting parties to the UPU Acts to provide for the reciprocal exchange of letter-post items, including freedom of transit, and to treat postal items in transit from other countries like their own postal items, without discrimination, subject to the conditions specified in the Acts of the Union.
4. Freedom of transit: obligation for an intermediate member country to ensure the transport of postal items passed on to it in transit for another member country, providing similar treatment to that given to domestic items, subject to the conditions specified in the Acts of the Union.

Any reservation shall be compatible with the object and purpose of Union as defined in the preamble and article 1 of the Constitution. It must be duly justified and approved by the majority required for approval of the Act concerned, and inserted in the Final Protocol thereto.

⁵ Article amended by the 2021 Abidjan Add Prot.

³⁶ As amended by Geneva 2008-08-12, in force 2010-01-01.

³⁷ Article amended by the 1999 Beijing Add Prots. The 1999 Beijing Congress added a new para to art 27 for two reasons. Firstly, in line with its fundamental decision to place all provisions in the Regulations which are not intergovernmental in nature, it concluded that it was no longer justified to formally submit to Congress props for amending the Regs. Congress, when required, can give necessary guidelines to the POC on any proposal of a member country under art 22, § 5, of the Const. Secondly, abolishing the obligation to submit props concerning the Regs to Congress would result in lower costs. However, the 1999 Beijing Congress desired that prior information on proposals relating to the Regs should be communicated to all Union member countries to enable the countries concerned to send in written comments or attend the relevant POC meeting as observers. See also art 22.5, comm. Subsequently amended by Geneva 2008-08-12, in force 2010-01-01, and the 2021 Abidjan Add Prot.

³⁸ The 1999 Beijing Congress introduced a system of automatic sanctions relating to the arrears of mandatory contributions owed to the Union (art 129 of the Gen Regs). Member countries against which sanctions have been applied lose their voting rights at Congress and at meetings of the Councils. This amendment is a consequence of that decision, designed to provide a legal basis in the Acts (art 133 of the Gen Regs, art 36 of the Conv and art 30 of the Rules of Procedure of Congresses).

amendments shall be ratified, approved, accepted or acceded to as soon as possible by member countries. The instruments of such ratification, approval, acceptance or accession shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure laid down in article 25.³⁹

Article 29: Amendment of the General Regulations, the Convention and the Agreements of the Union⁴⁰

1. The General Regulations, the Convention and the Agreements of the Union shall define the conditions to be fulfilled for the approval of proposals which concern them.
2. Amendments to the General Regulations, the Convention and the Agreements of the Union shall form the subject of an additional protocol and enter into force on the date specified therein as decided by Congress. Without prejudice to the binding character of the aforementioned Acts of the Union as provided for in article 21, the said amendments shall be ratified, approved, accepted or acceded to as soon as possible by member countries. The instruments of such ratification, approval, acceptance or accession shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure laid down in article 25. This provision shall also apply, mutatis mutandis, to any amendments to the Convention and the Agreements of the Union adopted between Congresses.⁴¹

CHAPTER IV - SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 30: Arbitration

In the event of a dispute between two or more postal administrations of member countries concerning the interpretation of the Acts of the Union or the responsibility imposed on a member country by the application of those Acts, the question at issue shall be settled by arbitration.⁴²

SECTION III – FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 31: Coming into Operation and Duration of the Constitution

This Constitution shall come into operation on 1 January 1966 and shall remain in force for an indefinite period.

In witness whereof, the plenipotentiaries of the Governments of the contracting countries have signed this Constitution in a single original which shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the country in which the seat of the Union is situated. A copy thereof shall be delivered to each member country by the International Bureau of the Union.⁴³
