

Ambassador Dr. Bettina Fanghänel is a career diplomat with almost two decades of experience. Prior to her arrival in Singapore, Ambassador Fanghänel was Head of the State Secretaries' Office at the Federal Foreign Office in Berlin since 2021. Before that, she served in various capacities in the Federal Foreign Office, among others in the Foreign Minister's Office from 2018 to 2021, and at the Federal Chancellery in Berlin. She was posted to Germany's Embassy in Beijing, China from 2011 to 2014.

Ambassador Fanghänel has a PhD in Law from the University of Leipzig. Prior to joining the Diplomatic Service she was a judge at the Regional Court in Halle, Germany.

She is married with two children.